

THE SUNDAY TIMES

travel

THE SUNDAY TIMES
timesonline.co.uk/travel

03.01.10 21

GOOD GEAR
JONATHAN FUTRELL

Flight blanket
Here's one way to stay cosy and comfy on a long flight. The Snuggly is a polyester blanket with sleeves, so you can curl up and stay warm, but still have hands free for the seat belt, a book or the entertainment controls.
£15; 020 7691 3800, JMLdirect.com

Designer skis
What sets Paul Smith apart from other designers is his passion for sport. He has worked with Edelwiser to produce these Swing 162 skis, which come in his trademark stripes and are customised with your own identity tag in front of the bindings.
From £636; 020 7836 7828, edelwiser.com

Travel game
Backpacker is a card game about surviving travel disasters to get home with the most photos.
£10; 07916 349942, backpackercardgame.com

Mini binoculars
For the new-year period only, Leica is throwing in a complimentary leather case, worth £90, with its pocket-sized Ultravid 8x20 and 10x25 binoculars. Great travel bins with case makes for a package worth looking into.
From £535; 020 7629 1351, leica-store mayfair.co.uk

My Adonis turned out to be rather close to home

Debra Roseman travelled round the world... and whom should she meet?

After two weeks in Greece, the only person I'd shared

CONFESSIONS

VJV
PRICE
GUARANTEE

VOYAGES JULES VERNE discovering India . . .

Travelling with Voyages Jules Verne

- Over 30 years of experience.
- Worldwide classic journeys with cultural and historical interest.
- Carefully planned, imaginative itineraries

'Images of India'

From the Golden Temple at Amritsar to the Taj Mahal and Tibetan Buddhists, explore the history, tradition and beauty of India.

Delhi (3 nights) • Agra (2 nights)